

Questions from Cupid

Happy Valentine's Day from the Mendik Library! As our Valentine's Day gift to you, here's your opportunity to be entered into a drawing to WIN research aids, study guides and cool study tools. Complete this information hunt and submit your answer sheet by 5 PM on Thursday, February 13^h to enter the drawing. The official collection basket for completed entries is located at the Reference Desk in the Library. You can also complete the answer sheet online and e-mail it to reference@nyls.edu.

The following slides include the questions plus helpful guidance on what sources to use and steps to take to solve each problem. Press Enter to reveal each step in the research process. Stop by the library entrance at 5:45 PM on February 13 for the drawing and for some sweet Valentine's treats. You need not be present to win, but those in attendance will receive an extra entry in the raffle drum.

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Click on the State Materials tab.

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Click on the State Materials tab.
3. Select Rhode Island.

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Click on the State Materials tab.
3. Select Rhode Island.
4. Select All Rhode Island State Cases.

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

2. Click on the State Materials tab.

3. Select Rhode Island.

4. Select All Rhode Island State Cases.

5. Next to the orange Search button, you'll find "Advanced" in small text; click on that.

Question 1

Not every love story has a happy ending - just ask the Von Bulows. Claus was convicted but later acquitted of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny in the fascinating case documented in the book (and movie) Reversal of Fortune. What is the Atlantic Reporter citation to Von Bulow's 1984 appeal to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

2. Click on the State Materials tab.

3. Select Rhode Island.

4. Select All Rhode Island State Cases.

5. Next to the orange Search button, you'll find "Advanced" in small text; click on that.

6. Under Document Fields (Boolean Terms and Connectors Only), find the field labeled Party Name; enter Von Bulow.

Question 2

Love can be a perilous game. In 2007, Leroy Greer of Texas literally made a federal case of it after 1-800-Flowers sent a thank you note for his order to Greer's home. The flowers had been purchased for Greer's girlfriend; the thank you note was delivered to his wife. What was the disposition of the federal claim?

Question 2

Love can be a perilous game. In 2007, Leroy Greer of Texas literally made a federal case of it after 1-800-Flowers sent a thank you note for his order to Greer's home. The flowers had been purchased for Greer's girlfriend; the thank you note was delivered to his wife. What was the disposition of the federal claim?

1. Sign into Lexis Advance and set your search tabs to:
 - a. All Content Types
 - b. U.S. Federal
 - c. All Practice Areas and Topics

Question 2

Love can be a perilous game. In 2007, Leroy Greer of Texas literally made a federal case of it after 1-800-Flowers sent a thank you note for his order to Greer's home. The flowers had been purchased for Greer's girlfriend; the thank you note was delivered to his wife. What was the disposition of the federal claim?

1. Sign into Lexis Advance and set your search tabs to:
 - a. All Content Types
 - b. U.S. Federal
 - c. All Practice Areas and Topics

2. Type Greer 1-800-Flowers and click Search.

Question 2

Love can be a perilous game. In 2007, Leroy Greer of Texas literally made a federal case of it after 1-800-Flowers sent a thank you note for his order to Greer's home. The flowers had been purchased for Greer's girlfriend; the thank you note was delivered to his wife. What was the disposition of the federal claim?

1. Sign into Lexis Advance and set your search tabs to:
 - a. All Content Types
 - b. U.S. Federal
 - c. All Practice Areas and Topics

2. Type Greer 1-800-Flowers and click Search.

3. After clicking on the Cases tab, find the appropriate case from the results list and locate the judge's ruling.

Question 3

Guess it wasn't a Match.com made in heaven. In 2010, a number of Match.com customers filed suit against the online dating service for breach of contract, claiming that over half of the profiles belonged to inactive members or were fake. On what date did the Northern District of Texas dismiss the case, Robinson v. Match.com, for failure to state a claim?

Question 3

Guess it wasn't a Match.com made in heaven. In 2010 a number of Match.com customers filed suit against the online dating service for breach of contract, claiming that over half of the profiles belonged to inactive members or were fake. On what date did the Northern District of Texas dismiss the case, Robinson v. Match.com, for failure to state a claim?

1. Log into Bloomberglaw.com.

*Don't have a password yet? Click here.

Question 3

Guess it wasn't a Match.com made in heaven. In 2010 a number of Match.com customers filed suit against the online dating service for breach of contract, claiming that over half of the profiles belonged to inactive members or were fake. On what date did the Northern District of Texas dismiss the case, Robinson v. Match.com, for failure to state a claim?

1. Log into BloombergLaw.com.

*Don't have a password yet? Click here.

2. Under Getting Started, select Dockets.

Question 3

Guess it wasn't a Match.com made in heaven. In 2010 a number of Match.com customers filed suit against the online dating service for breach of contract, claiming that over half of the profiles belonged to inactive members or were fake. On what date did the Northern District of Texas dismiss the case, Robinson v. Match.com, for failure to state a claim?

1. Log into BloombergLaw.com.

*Don't have a password yet? Click here.

2. Under Getting Started, select Dockets.

3. Click the drop-down menu at the Browse button.

Question 3

Guess it wasn't a Match.com made in heaven. In 2010 a number of Match.com customers filed suit against the online dating service for breach of contract, claiming that over half of the profiles belonged to inactive members or were fake. On what date did the Northern District of Texas dismiss the case, Robinson v. Match.com, for failure to state a claim?

1. Log into BloombergLaw.com.

*Don't have a password yet? Click here.

2. Under Getting Started, select Dockets.

3. Click the drop-down menu at the Browse button.

4. Click the + next to Federal Court Dockets.

Question 3

Guess it wasn't a Match.com made in heaven. In 2010 a number of Match.com customers filed suit against the online dating service for breach of contract, claiming that over half of the profiles belonged to inactive members or were fake. On what date did the Northern District of Texas dismiss the case, Robinson v. Match.com, for failure to state a claim?

1. Log into BloombergLaw.com.

*Don't have a password yet? Click here.

2. Under Getting Started, select Dockets.

3. Click the drop-down menu at the Browse button.

4. Click the + next to Federal Court Dockets.

5. Click the + next to U.S. District Courts.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Options and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Opinions and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

8. Enter Robinson; Match.com.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Opinions and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

8. Enter Robinson; Match.com.

9. Click Single Party Entry.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Opinions and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

8. Enter Robinson; Match.com.

9. Click Single Party Entry.

10. Click the button for All of the Following.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Opinions and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

8. Enter Robinson; Match.com.

9. Click Single Party Entry.

10. Click the button for All of the Following.

11. Scroll down and click the green Search button.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Opinions and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

8. Enter Robinson; Match.com.

9. Click Single Party Entry.

10. Click the button for All of the Following.

11. Scroll down and click the green Search button.

12. Open the docket for the case that results from the search.

Question 3

6. Scroll down and click on Districts of Texas to select.

7. Scroll down further on the page to Party Opinions and click the Multiple Party Entry tab.

8. Enter Robinson; Match.com.

9. Click Single Party Entry.

10. Click the button for All of the Following.

11. Scroll down and click the green Search button.

12. Open the docket for the case that results from the search.

13. Scroll past the listed parties to the Docket Proceedings.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Click on the State Materials tab.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Click on the State Materials tab.
3. Select New York.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Click on the State Materials tab.
3. Select New York.
4. Select New York Statutes and Court Rules.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

2. Click on the State Materials tab.

3. Select New York.

4. Select New York Statutes and Court Rules.

5. On the right side of the screen, under Tools & Resources, select New York Statutes Popular Name Table.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

2. Click on the State Materials tab.

3. Select New York.

4. Select New York Statutes and Court Rules.

5. On the right side of the screen, under Tools & Resources, select New York Statutes Popular Name Table.

6. Select Ke-Mo.

Question 4

Love for all. Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Log into WestlawNext.

2. Click on the State Materials tab.

3. Select New York.

4. Select New York Statutes and Court Rules.

5. On the right side of the screen, under Tools & Resources, select New York Statutes Popular Name Table.

6. Select Ke-Mo.

7. Scroll down the alphabetical list until you find the Marriage Equality Act.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Select State Materials.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Select State Materials.
3. Select Connecticut.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Select State Materials.
3. Select Connecticut.
4. Select All Connecticut State Cases.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Select State Materials.
3. Select Connecticut.
4. Select All Connecticut State Cases.
5. Next to the orange Search button, you’ll find “Advanced” in small text; click on that.

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Select State Materials.
3. Select Connecticut.
4. Select All Connecticut State Cases.
5. Next to the orange Search button, you’ll find “Advanced” in small text; click on that.
6. Under Find documents that have, find the field labeled All of these terms; enter (dissolution /3 marriage) & (lack /10 jurisdiction).

Question 5

Until death do us part? Find the citation to the unpublished Connecticut case where the husband, citing the “until death do us part” statement in the wedding vows, alleged that the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dissolution of marriage action filed by the wife, as the parties’ marriage was effectively ended when the husband died (and was resuscitated) on three separate occasions.

1. Log into WestlawNext.
2. Select State Materials.
3. Select Connecticut.
4. Select All Connecticut State Cases.
5. Next to the orange Search button, you’ll find “Advanced” in small text; click on that.
6. Under Find documents that have, find the field labeled All of these terms; enter (dissolution /3 marriage) & (lack /10 jurisdiction).
7. Under Find documents that have, find the field labeled This exact phrase; enter: until death do us part.

Question 6

A second chance at love. This article, published in The New York Times, tells the story of a New York based wedding photographer sued by a now-divorced former client who alleged that the photographer failed to capture key parts of the wedding reception. The former client now seeks to recreate the wedding at the photographer's expense so that those moments may be photographed. Using information culled from the article, find the complaint (or other pleading filed in this matter) and provide the style of the case and the New York Supreme Court Index Number.

Question 6

A second chance at love. This article, published in The New York Times, tells the story of a New York based wedding photographer sued by a now-divorced former client who alleged that the photographer failed to capture key parts of the wedding reception. The former client now seeks to recreate the wedding at the photographer's expense so that those moments may be photographed.

Using information culled from the article, find the complaint (or other pleading filed in this matter) and provide the style of the case and the New York Supreme Court Index Number.

1. Go to <http://iapps.courts.state.ny.us/iscroll/>

Question 6

A second chance at love. This article, published in The New York Times, tells the story of a New York based wedding photographer sued by a now-divorced former client who alleged that the photographer failed to capture key parts of the wedding reception. The former client now seeks to recreate the wedding at the photographer's expense so that those moments may be photographed.

Using information culled from the article, find the complaint (or other pleading filed in this matter) and provide the style of the case and the New York Supreme Court Index Number.

1. Go to <http://iapps.courts.state.ny.us/iscroll/>

2. On the right hand side of the home screen, enter the series of letters displayed to get through to the search page.

Question 6

A second chance at love. This article, published in The New York Times, tells the story of a New York based wedding photographer sued by a now-divorced former client who alleged that the photographer failed to capture key parts of the wedding reception. The former client now seeks to recreate the wedding at the photographer's expense so that those moments may be photographed.

Using information culled from the article, find the complaint (or other pleading filed in this matter) and provide the style of the case and the New York Supreme Court Index Number.

1. Go to <http://iapps.courts.state.ny.us/iscroll/>

2. On the right hand side of the home screen, enter the series of letters displayed to get through to the search page.

3. Enter the plaintiff's name or the defendant's name and run your search.

Question 6

A second chance at love. This article, published in The New York Times, tells the story of a New York based wedding photographer sued by a now-divorced former client who alleged that the photographer failed to capture key parts of the wedding reception. The former client now seeks to recreate the wedding at the photographer's expense so that those moments may be photographed.

Using information culled from the article, find the complaint (or other pleading filed in this matter) and provide the style of the case and the New York Supreme Court Index Number.

1. Go to <http://iapps.courts.state.ny.us/iscroll/>

2. On the right hand side of the home screen, enter the series of letters displayed to get through to the search page.

3. Enter the plaintiff's name or the defendant's name and run your search.

4. Click on the appropriate index number to access the pleadings filed in this matter.

We hope this “hunt” hasn’t left you with a broken heart. Now that you’re done, bring your completed answer sheet to the reference desk or send it by email to reference@nyls.edu to be eligible to win some prizes. We’ll see you at the drawing on February 13th!

