

Valentine's Day Info Hunt 2017

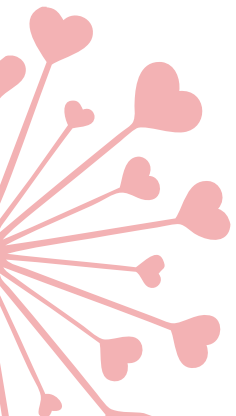

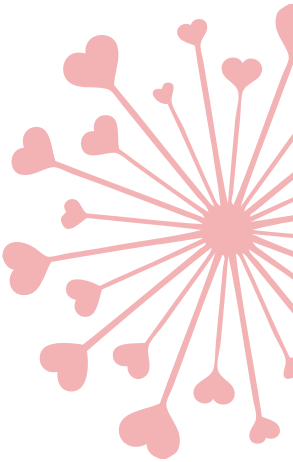

Join the hunt and WIN! Prizes include:

- Research and Study Aids
- OneCard gift cards
- Amazon gift cards
- Lexis Nexis reward points
- Lunch with your favorite librarian, and many more!

Instructions

1. Provide an answer to any three of the following six questions for a chance to win!
2. Each slide includes one question and easy, step-by-step instructions.
3. Press enter to move on to each new question.
4. Answer all six questions and receive an additional entry!

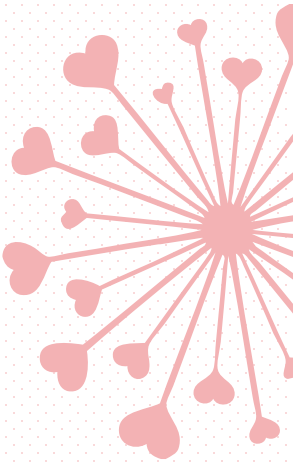

Drop your answer sheet into the Reference Desk raffle drum or email it to reference@nyls.edu before 3 pm on February 13 and then join us outside the library at 5:50 pm for the drawing.

Question No. 1

America's chocolate companies were given an early Valentine's Day gift when in September 2015 the Third Circuit Court of Appeals vacated a lawsuit filed against them for conspiracy to implement price increases. Find and cite the opinion that vacated the lawsuit in favor of the chocolate companies.

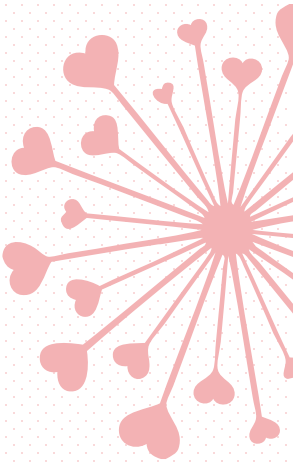

1. Sign into Lexis Advance.
2. Select Search: Everything on the search bar.
3. Under Jurisdiction, select Third Circuit.
4. Under Category, select Cases.
5. Run the following search: antitrust and chocolate and conspiracy.
6. Use the Timeline on the left to filter your results by date: September 1, 2015 - September 30, 2015.

Question No. 2

In 2009, Mrs. Davis filed for divorce alleging that her husband refused to acknowledge Valentine's Day and otherwise ignored her. Although failing to get your significant other chocolates on Valentine's Day is not advised, the New York Appellate Division Second Department ruled that this type of social abandonment was not a ground for divorce. What was the name of the judge who wrote that opinion?

1. Select Fastcase from the More Options drop down menu in the Electronic Resources quadrant of the Mendik Library homepage.
2. Select Advanced Caselaw Search.
3. Under Select Jurisdictions, select Individual Jurisdictions.
4. Select State Supreme and Appeals Courts.
5. Select New York.
6. Run the following search: "social abandonment" & divorce & davis.

Question No. 3

Did you know that you can get a marriage annulled in Delaware if you entered into the marriage as a "jest or dare"? Cite to the relevant Delaware statute.

1. Access DRAGNET from the Research Tools quadrant on the Mendik Library homepage.
2. Select DRAGNET: Constitutions and Codes.
3. Select Delaware Statutes.
4. In the search bar at the top, run the following search: annulment and jest and dare.

Question No. 4

Find the 2013 University of Miami Law Review article that provides a legal analysis of romantic gifts, including gifts given on Valentine's Day!

1. Select HeinOnline from the Research Tools quadrant of the Mendik Library homepage.
2. Select the Law Journal Library from the list of collections.
3. Select U.
4. Select University of Miami Law Review.
5. In the Search this title search bar, run the following search: romantic gifts.

Question No. 5

In August 2010, New York became the last of the 50 states to enact no-fault divorce. What's the citation to the New York Session Law enacting no-fault-divorce and when did the new law take effect?

1. Sign on to Westlaw Next.
2. From the Browse menu, select Proposed & Enacted Legislation.
3. Select New York.
4. Select New York Historical Session Laws under Tools & Resources on the right.
5. Run the following search: "no-fault divorce"

Question No. 6

Into what four sections of New York state law was the Marriage Equality Act codified?

1. Sign on to WestlawNext.
2. From the Browse menu, click on the State Materials tab.
3. Select New York.
4. Select New York Statutes and Court Rules.
5. Under Tools & Resources on the right side, select New York Statutes Popular Name Table.
6. Select Ke-Mo.
7. Scroll down the alphabetical list until you find the Marriage Equality Act.

love is love
is love is love
is love is love
is love is love is love cannot be killed or swept aside