Answer:

2. Beware of the chainsaw carrying maniac.

In 2015, Scott Griffin appealed a California trial court decision granting Defendant Haunted Hotel Inc.'s motion for summary judgment. Mr. Griffin sued Haunted Hotel alleging negligence and assault after he was injured while fleeing from an actor chasing him with a chainsaw at an outdoor haunted house.

Unfortunately for Mr. Griffin, the California appellate court affirmed the lower court's decision finding that "being chased within the physical confines of The Haunted Trail by a chainsaw carrying maniac is a fundamental part and inherent risk of [the] amusement." Provide the citation to the California Court of Appeal decision.

- ⇒ Log into Westlaw
- ⇒ From the Browse Menu, select State Materials and California
- ⇒ Under "Cases" select California Courts of Appeal
- ⇒ Select Advanced next to the search bar
- ⇒ In the Party Name field, type: Griffin & "Haunted Hotel" and run the search

Answer:

5. Trick or treating on Capitol Hill.

"All Hallow's Eve — the precursor to Halloween — commemorated the ancient, annual Scottish-Irish observance of the last night before All Hallow's Day . . . Trick or treat is the cry heard in the streets. But it is not the only place we hear that cry. It is October-November — and for Congress, it is the time of smoke, mirrors, sequestration, continuing resolutions, and budget legerdemain." What was the name of the Congresswoman who spoke these words on the floor of the House of Representatives in 1989?

- ⇒ Go to the Library homepage, click on Electronic Resources and select HeinOnline
- ⇒ Select the U.S. Congressional Documents database
- ⇒ Select the Congressional Record database containing Vols. 1-163 pt. 14 (1873-2018)
